Dr. Pearce will preach at McKendree church, Hubble, next Sunday 11 a. m. and at Lancaster at night.

The W. C. T. U. meet in their room over Brown store every Saturday at 2:30 o'clock. The subject last Saturday was "The Press," three interesting papers were read.

A series of meetings will begin, at the Baptist church, at Lancaster Sunday August 28th. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these meetings.
The pastor will be assisted by Rev.
J. C. Martin of Jellico, Tenn.

The W. C. T. U. District convention will convene Sept. 22-23 at Danville. Those of the local Union taking part are Mrs. W. A. Rice, who responds to the welcome address; Mrs.
Wm. Burnett, who will take part in the discussion, "How may we advance the work in our District."

Change Of Time In Train.

The Freight Train, No. 55 is now due to pass Lancaster at 8:55 a. m. returning at 12:55 P. M. The change of time went into effect last Monday.

Somerset Fair, Aug., 30, 31, Sep., 1, 2.

Crescent Route will be sold Aug., 30, 31, September 3, 1910. The round trip rate from Junction City, Ky., for this occasion is $1.45.

Sale Of City Property.

Hughes and Swinebroad report that they have sold for V. A. Lear, his handsome residence on Lexington street, to Samuel Cotten for $5,050.

We are glad to welcome Mr. Cotten and his family into our City.

A Winner.

Carleton Ekin has been showing his fine three year old road horse at the county fairs and he is a winner.
Out of eleven shows he has taken ten ribbons. At Perryville last week he took two blue ties and he expects to do better at Nicholasville next week.

Desirable Farm For Sale.

110 acres near pine, some choice tobacco land, good residence and orchard, well watered, new tobacco barn, excellent neighborhood. Three miles from Lancaster, a bargain if sold soon.
Inquire T. C. Rankin and S. W. Moss, Lancaster, Ky., or Editor of Record.

Farm Sold.

Messrs. H. K. Herndon and J. L.
Gill, sold their farm of 230 acres, near Cartersville to Mr. Jno. L. Dozier of Knox County, at $100.00 per acre.

Mr. Dozier is a prominent citizen of Knox having been jailor two terms.
We are glad to welcome him to our county.

Lot Sold.

Hughes and Swinebroad have sold for John W. Miller a lot on Danville Street to Horace K. Herndon for $800.
Mr. Herndon will at once erect a handsome residence on the lot and he and his estimable wife will move to their new dwelling as soon as completed. Everyone will be glad to know of the return of Mr. Herndon and wife to Lancaster.

No Appointment Made.

The 13th. Judicial District is still without a Judge. Governor Cox has not made the appointment, and the papers state that he will not do so, but will wait until Governor Wilson returns and let him say who is the man for the place. Governor Wilson will return the first of next week.
There are no new applicants for the place, other than those named last week.

Tobacco Meeting.

At a meeting of The Burley Society, Monday afternoon Messrs Ward Headley and Bradley Wilson addressed a large crowd of tobacco growers. About 250 persons were present and listened with interest to what these gentlemen had to say. They stated that there will not be over a half crop this year in Kentucky, and that if the pool is a success, that tobacco will bring twenty five cents per pound. This is a question that demands the careful consideration of every business man and citizen of the county.

Another Fair Next Year.

Mr. John M. Farra announces that Lancaster will have another fair next year and that the same dates will be reserved. This is good news to the many good citizens of this and the adjoining Counties for it means a week of pleasure to the fair goers and a great help to our town and County. Our fair has always been recognized as being one of the best ones in the State, and Mr. Farra is a good man to promote it. Another company will very likely be organized and we hope that a large number of our best citizens will join in an effort to make next year, the best fair that Garrard County has ever known.

Close of Dr. Pearce's Pastorate.

Under the laws of the Methodist church, the annual conference which meets at Harrodsburg on Sep. 20th decides where each pastor shall preach next year. Dr. Pearce's time with the Lancaster Methodist church expires on Sep. 20th and it will be necessary that the conference re-appoint him or some one else to preach here the coming year. Dr. Pearce is a good preacher and a fine Christian man, and the people of Lancaster and Garrard county showed their appreciation of his good work, when a large number of them signed a petition asking that the conference send him to Lancaster for another year. Other churches have also asked for him however, we trust that the church of Lancaster may have the good fortune of having Dr. Pearce with them for another year.

County Court Day.

Last Monday brought a large crowd of people to town and all the farmers were feeling good over the recent rain.
Business was good compared to the last two court days here. Plow horses brought from thirty to sixty-five dollars.
Mr. J. W. Miller sold a cow and calf for forty-five dollars. Mr. Prather reported 150 cattle at the stock pens, which sold from three to five cents per pound, 150 head of sheep, which sold at $4.00 per head, about ten hogs which sold at ten cents.

Mr. W. B. Burton bought ten aged mules, average $175.00 per head. Mr.
B. T. Henry, of Carlisle, Ky., bought thirteen head of mule colts, average $65.00 per head. Mr. M. Lauber, of York, Pa., bought a car load of two year mules average $110.00 per head.
Mr. Thos. Rankin bought of Price
Bros., ten three year old mules average $162.50 per head. The fair ground lumber was sold to Mr. John M. Farra for $265.00.

Teachers' Institute.

The joint institute of the teachers of Boyle and Garrard counties will be held at the public school building in Danville for one week beginning August 29. Supt. Rawlings and Prof.
Fallis and his assistants are making preparations for a big event. The institute will be presided over by Supt.
Rawlings and Miss Jennie Higgins, superintendent of the Garrard county schools. There will be 110 teachers in attendance aside from quite a number of visitors. The institute will be conducted by Prof. M. A. Cassidy, the noted Lexington educator, and Miss Lelia E. Patridge, of Richmond.
Both are very superior as institute conductors and the teachers will doubtless be much benefited by their instruction. On Wednesday night arrangements have been made for the appearance of the Florence Wright Concert Company, of Indianapolis.
This is one of the finest concert companies in the country and the teachers are very fortunate in having an opportunity to hear these splendid musicians and readers. On Thursday night of the institute the teachers will be entertained by the Improvement League.

Burial of Judge W. Con Bell.

The body of Judge W. Con Bell was laid to rest in family lot in the Harrodsburg cemetery on Monday afternoon at three o'clock. A large crowd of sorrowing friends from Mercer and surrounding Counties gathered at the grave to pay the last tribute of respect and love to all that was mortal of this distinguished citizen. The funeral services were very informal, consisting only of scripture reading a short address and prayer.

The remains of Judge Bell arrived in Harrodsburg Saturday evening from Seattle where occurred the fatal accident which took so suddenly the life of the Judge.

Mrs. Bell who was so seriously injured in the accident and who has been lingering for weeks between life and death accompanied the remains of her husband from Seattle to Harrodsburg, together with her nurse and physician.

While Mrs. Bell is reported to be considerably improved in health as compared with her condition some weeks ago, is still in a very serious condition, but her family and friends have some hopes of her final recovery.

Mysterious Visitors.

On Thursday of last week a strange lady appeared at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Eads near Turnersville, in an automobile. She told Mrs. Eads that her husband had gone across the country to another house and that she desired to wait until he returned.
In a few moments she left after having held the infant child of Mrs. Eads in her lap. Mrs. Eads went out to the kitchen and returning into the house found that the strange lady had re-entered her house and had the baby in her arms. She claimed to have lost a fine diamond pin and said that she thought it was in the baby's clothes.
As Mrs. Eads, who suspected some thing made an attempt to take her child, the strange lady threw carbolic acid in her face and attempted to leave with the child however Mrs.
Eads held on to it and the strange lady left with a man in the automobile without the child.

No trace whatever has been found of the automobile and the man and woman said to have been occupying it.
Several parties working near the road over which the kidnappers are alleged to have passed say they never saw an automobile of any description pass and the mystery is how the people got away. The officers have been totally unable to establish a clew. Mrs. Eads was taken to the home of a relative in Stanford where she is being treated.

Brief Tribute.

The death of Judge M. C. Sauvey was a loss to the Judiciary and to the Commonwealth. His brilliant career, on the State and Federal bench, is well known, and, having admired him for years, I only desire to testify to those superior traits and qualifications which gave him eminence, and which were in demand and valuable, like gold and precious jewels, because they are rare.

He was free from guile, deceit, treachery and prejudice, possessed of a rich store of legal knowledge, together with scientific and general information, which was always imparted in a clear and concise manner in rendering his opinions and judgements.
He manifested no inordinate desire for wealth or distinction and spurned the overtures of the flatterer and the applause of the public. With the courage of a Caesar, the eloquence of Webster or Calhoun, and the logic and discernment of Jefferson or Clay, he was lead by pure impulses and ennoblishing motives, and was never happier than when his conduct was approved by his own enlightened conscience.

When considered with those who opposed his ideals he was as a rushing torrent compared with a stagnant pool, or the light of the sun compared with the twinkle of a distant star.
The language of Holy writ, "Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?" would apply, with a change of time and place.

His freedom from factional alliance, his fidelity to his friends, and his manner of dispensing justice to rich and poor, friend and foe alike, endeared him to the people. Hence the sorrow over his passing is not confined to relatives but the people, throughout the country, feel keenly the loss, as he guarded their interests against the thrusts of designing and unscrupulous individuals and factions that seek gain and distinction even at the sacrifice of the general welfare. The truth of this assertion is manifest.
Official corruption is the bane of our country and it exists under the guise of honest intention. Let us cultivate those sterling traits of character and high ideals which made him famous.
M. D. Hughes.

The Thornless Cactus.

Notwithstanding the recent drift of criticism, it is being conceded that Mr. Burbank's thornless cactus is going to be plant of immense value, both for forage and as a food plant. The new plant will come true from graft, and is being reproduced in that way as well as by leaves broken off and planted. When the young plant is three years old it stands 6 feet high, as much in circumference, and weighs 500 pounds. There will be 500,000 plants distributed during the current year, and these will be distributed thru the Gulf States as well as California. Four tons of the fodder is said to be equal to one ton of alfalfa, and one acre of land will produce as much as four acres of alfalfa. But we have to take into account that this cactus will grow where the alfalfa will not, on the most unproductive soil, while it needs no irrigation whatever. Then we have 10 to 20 tons of fruit per acre and this also has a commercial value. It can be used for making syrup, boiled or canned. The leaves are said to be very similar to egg plant as a salad or fried. Mr. Burbank does not claim and never has claimed that this is the only thornless cactus in the world, but he has developed a variety superior to anything before known. An acre of this plant will support five to ten dairy cows, while hogs and sheep do admirably feeding on it. It serves for drink as well as for food, as it contains such a large percentage of water. It looks now as if we should see this plant as popular as the cow pea and the velvet bean in the Southern States at least in California, Colorado, Florida and around the Gulf. If the cacti can redeem some hundreds of millions of arid acres, while the legumes more than double the productivity of our better soils, the door is opening much wider to an enormously increased and at the same time better fed population.—The Independent.

RESOLUTIONS.

Passed by Boyle County Bar.

A meeting of the Danville Bar Association was held at the court house Monday morning for the purpose of adopting resolutions on the death of Judge M. C. Saufley. Judge R. J. Breckinridge was in the chair. Beautiful eulogies were delivered by Hon. C. C. Fox, Judge Breckinridge, Hon. John W. Rawlings, Hon. O. C. Bagby, Attorney Morrison Breckinridge and others. Resolutions were prepared by a committee of Mr. C. C. Fox, Mr. Morrison Breckinridge and Mr. C. H. Rodes. Their adoption was moved by Judge Puryear and his motion carried by a unanimous vote. The resolutions were as follows:

WHEREAS: Judge M. C. Saufley died on August 12th, 1910, at his home in Stanford, Kentucky;

And Whereas: The Danville Bar have been called to adopt suitable resolutions touching his life and character.

Therefore, be it Resolved: That in the death of Judge Saufley, the district has lost an able and upright jurist, and the profession one of its brightest ornaments:

2nd. That he was a judge of incorruptible integrity and of marked ability.

3rd. He was an orator of recognized talent and brilliancy, and a true and faithful friend and bore himself as a man in all the walks of life, both in war and peace.

4th. The sympathies of this Bar are tendered to his family, and a copy of these resolutions will be sent to his widow and spread at large upon the records of the Boyle Circuit Court and published in the news papers of the district.

Rousing Tobacco Meeting.

(Special to the Record)

Paint Lick, Ky.,
August 20th, 1910.

One of the most interesting meetings yet held in the interest of the Burley Tobacco Society was the one at Paint Lick Saturday afternoon in which all the farmers of that vicinity were in attendance. Enthusiasm was shown to be at its highest in the unanimous expressions of those present over the prospect of the pooling of nearly all the crop in that section.

The occasion of the meeting was to hear the reports from Messrs Wade Walker and J. B. Woods, who at a meeting of weeks ago had been named as delegates to attend the meeting at Lexington for the purpose of a thorough investigation and to make a report of their findings Aug., 20th at Paint Lick. After the meeting was called to order; the report of the committee was called for and Mr. Walker for the committee responded in substance as follows:

He said, we found that the sentiment of all the old poolers was stronger than ever for the 1910 pool and that he was convinced that all the old counties would be as well organized in 1910 as ever, and that their seemed to be no uneasiness felt on there part as to the treatment they would receive in the pool, but it was strongly evidenced that they were in favor of the 1910 pool.

He also stated that he and Mr.

Woods were in conference with Mr. Lebus and other members of the executive Board and they were assured of the erection of a warehouse at Paint Lick; also that Mr. Lebus said, if they would pool in the neighborhood of two million pounds at once he would guarantee them a steam re-drying plant at Paint Lick. This proposition seemed to meet with unanimous consent by all present. Both Messrs Walker and Woods were unanimous and emphatic in their report that now above all other; was the time for the people in this district to pool their tobacco; giving as a reason that the short crop could be easily controlled with a stronger pool. They also urged their friends and neighbors to join with the following committee in making the meeting to be held at Paint Lick Saturday, Sept. 3d a grand success and come with minds fully made up to pool their tobacco.

Mr. Bradley Wilson, manager of the campaign, for this District was present and assured the meeting that President and Mrs. Lebus and the executive Committee and other prominent speakers would be present. The meeting was unanimous for the barbecue and basket dinner and the following committee was elected to take charge of the details and make all arrangements for the reception of the guests. The committee issued and signed the following:

To the Tobacco Growers of Garrard and Adjoining Counties:

We the undersigned committee representing the citizens and tobacco growers of the vicinity of Paint Lick respectfully invite and request you to join with us in a mammoth barbecue and basket dinner to be given at Paint Lick on the 3d day of Sept., 1910.

We feel that the tobacco question deserves immediate attention.

The Executive Committee of the Burley Tobacco Society will spend the day with us, also other prominent speakers will be invited and expected to attend.

Ladies are also especially invited to attend and take an interest in the meeting.

SEPTEMBER

WASHINGTON NEWS.

(By TAVENNER.)

Washington, August 24, 1910.

The American people will recall that Senator Henry Cabot Lodge's price investigation committee found that no part of the 5% per cent increase in the cost of living in this country in the last ten years was due to the tariff. Political economists all over the land were sorely puzzled at the report.

The phenomenon can now be explained. The report of the minority of the committee, recently published, shows that the Republicans made no serious attempt to ascertain whether the tariff was responsible or not. Listen to this extract from the minority report:

"In examining the witnesses we (the committee) scarcely touched upon the territory of the highly protected commodities."

Lodge, who helped frame the Payne Aldrich bill and takes the position that the ultimate consumer is a myth, saw to it that the investigations were confined almost exclusively to food stuffs and cotton, corn, beef, mutton and hog products, of which commodities the United States produces a large per cent of the world's production, i.e. which we export in enormous quantities. As to these articles it may be supposed that, when free from the influence of trusts and monopolies, the tariff should not cut a large figure except that it increases the cost of their production.

Do you see the point, Mr. Consumer? Lodge had been assigned by Senator Aldrich to make a report, obviously for campaign purposes, which would absolve the tariff from all blame in connection with the awful increase in the cost of living under our system of excessive protection. Lodge evidently concluded that the safest way to accomplish this end would be to avoid asking any questions of witnesses concerning the advances in the prices of highly protected articles, such as the products of the sugar trust, the steel trust, the harvester trust and the lumber trust, all of which contribute heavily to the Republican campaign fund.

The Lodge report gave fifteen reasons for increased prices, and found that the tariff was "no material factor." This report is being used by the men who voted for the Payne-Aldrich bill in the hope it will prevent them from being retired to private life.

TARIFF INCREASES PRICES.

Senators Johnson, of Alabama, Clarke of Arkansas, and Smith, of South Carolina, the minority members of the Lodge committee, find that the three substantial causes for increased prices are:

1. Tariff.
2. Trusts, combines and monopolies.
3. Increased money supply.

Owing to the tactics of the Republicans in avoiding lightly protected articles, the minority members found themselves without sufficient data to apportion the degree of responsibility between these three causes, but state "that the two first are the chiefable factors we have no doubt; and they are if our own creation or permission."

A CAMPAIGN CANARD.

"Taft will no longer co-operate with Aldrich or Cannon, and Ballinger is to be forced out."

This is the gist of statements carried by the Associated Press, and obviously inspired by Republican campaign managers.

The information may be accepted as little more than a ruse. The Republican campaign managers played the same trick on the public in the last Presidential election. The rumor was quietly started that candidate Taft was hostile to Speaker Cannon. This inference was strong that Taft would be against Cannon as speaker. This false rumor unfortunately helped Taft in some insurance districts.

Immediately after Taft was inaugurated an attempt was made to defeat Cannon as speaker. The combined Democrats and Insurgents would have accomplished this end had not President Taft used all of the resources at his command to perpetuate Cannon as speaker.

Taft is not likely to try to read Aldrich and Cannon out of the Republican party, because Aldrich and Cannon (and the special interests they represent) will not permit the President to have a re-nomination if he tries it. Taft knows which side his political bread is buttered on.

Furthermore, there is no reason for discord. Taft, Aldrich and Cannon, and Ballinger too, are all working to the same end. Their views on big questions are harmonious.

It was only recently that Taft eulogized Aldrich to the skies and referred to "Uncle Joe" as being in the Abraham Lincoln class of statesmen.

Taft, Aldrich and Cannon, and particularly Taft and Aldrich, can have no break. They must sink or swim together.

ROOSEVELT VS TAFT.

Roosevelt will not endorse Taft or the Payne-Aldrich law, in the opinion of the writer. There has been no doubt in my mind on this point since March 4, 1909, and I have repeatedly expressed the view in these dispatches. But though T. R., will not endorse Taft, he has promised to endorse Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, who is notorious as a tool of Aldrich and special senate representatives of the tariff trusts, railroads and other New England corporate interests. To endorse Lodge is as bad as to endorse the Taft administration.

But I do not expect to hear of Roosevelt campaigning for such genuine progressives as LaFollette's popularity.

At this stage Taft appears to stand a better chance of hauling down the next Republican presidential nomination than does T. R. This is because Taft stands right with the great and powerful corporate interests of the United States and they control absolutely the Republican machine.

The action of the New York politicians in turning down Roosevelt as temporary chairman was a compliment to the ex-president. The man who opposed him are machine politicians and friends of Taft. They knew Roosevelt had made up his mind to refuse an endorsement of the Taft administration, and feared to trust him as temporary chairman lest he take advantage of the opportunity to discredit the stentor organization.

WHAT'S THIS!

The Payne-Aldrich law is not bringing in sufficient revenue to run the government, reports from the Republican press bureau to the contrary notwithstanding. The tariff law, the corporation tax, internal revenue receipts, and all other sources of revenue, combined, failed by $3,169,970 in producing sufficient funds to run the government during the first 17 days of August.

Mr. Luther Guthrie, of Beaufort, N. C. spent money freely in employing doctors to cure his wife from continual headache. He writes:

"One bottle of Cardui did my wife good than anything she has taken for ten years past. She had suffered with headache for ten years and I had spent $300.00 for doctors' bills for her, but nothing did her any good."

She has taken two bottles of Cardui and it has done her two thousand dollars ($2,000) worth of good. Just as long as it is made, I shall have Cardui in my home."

For all forms of female pain, like headache, side ache, pain in limbs, dizzy feelings, dragging down-sensations, etc.—Cardui has been found to be an effectual remedy. Don't wait till you are all run down."

How many embryo record breaking dairy cows have gone in to the veal market the world will never know, but the mere suspicion ought to make dairymen loth to send heifer calves to the butcher.

At Wm. H. Robbin's recent sale of Duror Jerseys, at Springfield, Ohio, fifty one bred sows of fall farrow sold for $2,600, an average of $52.50 head sold for $2,550, and average of $51. The top price of the sale was $100 for a daughter of Chief Success.

The hog is a difficult animal to treat when attacked by disease, and hence the breeder must adopt every means within his power to prevent disease from entering the herd. One can never be too careful in this matter, and the proverb, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," is especially applicable in the management of swine.

Here is a Remedy That Will Cure Eczema
"We Prove It."

Why waste time and money experimenting with greasy salves and lotions trying to drive the eczema germ from underneath the skin when the McRorers Drug Store guarantees ZEMO, a clean liquid preparation for external use to rid the skin of the germ life that causes the trouble? One application will relieve the itching and often times one bottle is sufficient to cure a minor case of eczema.

In over 2,000 towns and cities in America, the leading druggist has the agency for ZEMO and he will tell you of the marvelous cures made by this clean, simple treatment. ZEMO is recognized as the cleanest and most popular treatment for eczema, pimples, dandruff and all other forms of skin or scalp affections whether on infant or grown person. Will you try a bottle on our recommendation?

130-Head of Mules & Brood Mares-130

Having sold my Home Farm and Deciding to Change my Business, I will sell Publicly on Wednesday, September 7th, '10

Beginning at 9 o'clock a. m. sharp, at my Home Farm, one half mile South of the Railroad Station, on Somerset street, Stanford, Ky., the following property, to-wit:

One Jack, Named Samson,

Six Years Old, sired by Bill Goebel; he by the great Joe Blackburn, that sold for $1,825 Samson is the Champion Mule Jack of Kentucky, his colts having won more premiums at the Kentucky State Fair, the Blue Grass Fair and several Central Kentucky Fairs in 1908 and 1909 than any other jack's colts; as well as at the Lancaster, Danville, Lexington, Lawrenceburg, Harrodsburg and Perryville Fairs this year, the only fairs at which they have been shown to date. This Jack will be sold at 1 o'clock sharp.

70 MULES 70

Twenty Colts, half of them Mares—16 Yearlings; half of them Mares; 20 two-year-olds; half of them Mares. Nearly all broken to work, including Six Pairs, well mated. Fourteen Mules, 3 to 8 years old, including one pair Premium Horse Mules that weigh 3,000 lbs. Twenty of the above are show mules. I Have Won 175 Premiums in '08, '09, and '10 to date, which is more than any other breeder or dealer in this State can say. All the mules I won the premiums on, except three, I sold last fall, are in this Sale.

60 Brood Mares Bred to Jacks, Forty to My Great Mule Jack, Samson, 60

3, 2-year-olds; $\frac{1}{2}$ Draft Stock; weight about 1,100 lbs.
6, 4 year olds; $\frac{1}{2}$ Draft Stock; weight from 1,100 to 1,200 lbs.
20, 5 year olds; $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ Draft Stock; weight from 1,100 to 1,400 lbs.
10, 6 year olds; $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ Draft Stock; weight from 1,100 to 1,500 lbs.
11, 7 and 10 years olds; $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ Draft Stock; weight from 1,100 to 1,600 lbs.
10, Smooth Mouthed; $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ Draft Stock; weight from 1,100 to 1,600 lbs.

Most of these Mares are well broken to work anywhere; and about one-half have colts this year that will be sold at this sale; and the others were bought in the spring in Indiana, Illinois and Missouri.

Don't you need a few brood Mares? There is no stock on the Farm that will pay better than a few good mares that will raise $85. to $125 mule colts; that's what they are bringing in Kentucky to day and there has never been such a demand. The best colts are out of mares with from one-fourth to one-half draft blood. They have better bone and weight and 90 per cent of the show mules are out of such Mares.

Six Choice Shetland Ponies.

A few Farming Implements; Household and Kitchen Furniture, including some HANDSOME ANTIQUE FURNITURE. This will be an absolute closing out sale of my Mules, Broodmares, Etc. I will have conveyance meet all trains on Sale Day.

Dinner Will be Served at the House To All. TERMS—All sums of $10 and under, cash in hand; over $10 a credit of 6 months with 6 per cent interest from date of sale; purchaser giving a bankable note. AUCTIONEERS—I. M. DUNN, and T. D. ENGLISH.

J. H. Baughman.
